What to do if you misgender someone

The best thing to do is:

Acknowledge it and correct yourself

Say sorry

Move on

Use it as a learning opportunity not to make the same mistake again

This might look like:

Oh hi Raj, welcome to the conversation, Monique and I were just talking about last night's episode of Eastenders and he... I'm so sorry... and they, were saying that the fight between Peggy and Pat was hilarious.

Things to avoid doing

Ignoring it because you feel awkward

Saying sorry too much

Don't keep misgendering us
